

Our thanks to Everyman Cinema, Bancroft Road, Reigate RH2 7RP for giving a variety of local, independent filmmakers, the opportunity to showcase their work.

A full range of tasty refreshments are available to order from your seats, throughout the screenings – including coffee, soft drinks, popcorn and homemade pizza.

The suggested ratings below are based on the guidelines of the British Board of Film Classification website (www.bbfc.co.uk)

Sunday 16th June
11 – 12 noon

Burning Olives

Fantasy drama written and directed by Reigate College Film Studies alumni Amy Pringle, of Pringle Films. (Cert 12A. Mild threat).

Lake on the Cabin

A young woman stays alone in an isolated cabin ... With thanks to producer Owain Rhys Dain of Odd Pictures. (Cert 12A Mild psychological threat).

Clean

A short psychological action drama by class of 2023 Reigate College Film Studies student Will Donoghue. (Cert 12A Mild threat and violence).

Periodic Embarrassment

A young trans person struggles with menstruation. Produced especially for Reigate Summer Film Festival by Reigate College lower sixth year Film Studies student Lily Dain. (Cert PG)

Shale Trail: A Walk of Resistance

Reflections on a walk of resistance between Horse Hill and Brockham oil extraction sites in Surrey. Produced by Trish Kiy of How I See. (Cert U. Suitable for all ages).

Renewed Hope

Local people talk about hope, truth, love and the support they received from the charity Renewed Hope. Renewed Hope is a beneficiary of the festival and the Mayor's Charity of the Year. This film was created especially for the Reigate Summer Film Festival by James Rudoni and this is its first screening. (Cert 12A. Reference to illegal drugs and alcohol misuse).