

Introducing Reigate Summer Festival's, 2024 Film Festival

Our thanks to Everyman Cinema, Bancroft Road, Reigate RH2 7RP for giving a variety of local, independent filmmakers, the opportunity to showcase their work.

A full range of tasty refreshments are available to order from your seats, throughout the screenings – including coffee, soft drinks, popcorn and homemade pizza.

The suggested ratings below are based on the guidelines of the British Board of Film Classification website (www.bbfc.co.uk)

Saturday 15th June
11 – 12 noon

Some of the following films in this screening include content that parents of young children may prefer to avoid.

Aftertaste

A romance with a disturbing secret by producer Anna Hargreaves. (Cert 15. Non-graphic sexual content).

Trainwreck

A short film about teenage angst by the class of 2023, Reigate College Creative Digital Media Production student Jess Mills. (12A. Brief strong language).

We Dance for Life

An artistic film that celebrates the work of the Institute of Cancer Research through dance and science, made for Sutton Council and directed by Ian Sciacaluga. (Cert U. Suitable for all ages).

Night Fears

When a young woman spends a night at her ailing father's house she encounters supernatural horrors. Produced by Sutton Filmmakers. (Cert 12A. Mild threat).

Woman

A short documentary about female inequality. Produced by the class of 2023, Reigate College Film Studies student Lucie Gascoigne. (Cert 12A. Some reference to adult content).

Virtual Endings

A short action adventure with a twist. Produced by the class of 2022, Reigate College Creative Digital Media Production student, Jason Cole.

Between the Redwoods

A hunting trip takes a turn for the worse. Produced by Harry Courtney of Mysterious Rebel Pictures. (Cert 15. Violence, some gore).

Lake on the Cabin

A young woman stays alone in an isolated cabin ... With thanks to producer Owain Rhys Dain of Odd Pictures. (Cert 12A Mild psychological threat).